

TELLER THE LEADER OF THE DELEGATION

HE WILL HEAD COLORADO'S REPRESENTATIVES.

Bimetallism and Protection the Things
Most Earnestly Sought For—West
Virginia For McKinley and Sound
Money—Other Political News of Various Kinds.

Pueblo, Colo., May 15.—Colorado republicans in their state convention have declared for bimetallism and protection, with free silver the paramount issue.

Senator Teller is chosen to head the delegation to St. Louis. There are no instructions, but other delegates are expected to follow his directions.

It was not until 9:45 p. m. that the committee on credentials made its report, and then many of the delegates wanted to adjourn, but it was voted to continue in session and the convention settled down to a long and weary wait for the report of the platform committee.

It was nearly midnight when the platform was reported. The money platform reads:

"We therefore declare that the free coinage of silver and gold at the ratio of 16 to 1 is for the time now being of paramount and controlling importance, and the most pressing question connected with our political duty and which has never been denied by any national convention. The doctrine of bimetallism republican convention, but often asserted, and they who now deny it are false to the party, and not we who still maintain it."

WASHINGTON JOINS PROCESSION.

Republicans Instruct for McKinley and Sound Money.

Everett, Wash., May 15.—At the state republican convention the following were nominated unanimously as delegates: George H. Emerson of Hoquiam, I. W. Garner of Cowlitz, Andrew F. Buleigh of King, P. The convention instructed its delegates to vote for McKinley.

In the platform protection and reciprocity are commended and the gold standard favored, the resolution being adopted amid ringing cheers. The resolution declared for an international agreement regulating the ratio of gold and silver.

Following is the financial plank of the platform:

"Resolved, That we favor the maintenance of the present gold standard and are opposed to the free and unlimited coinage of silver at the ratio of 16 to 1. We are, however, favorable to an international agreement looking to the general use of both metals as money at a fixed ratio."

FOR MCKINLEY AND SOUND MONEY.

West Virginia Republicans Hold Their State Convention.

Clarksburg, W. Va., May 15.—The platform adopted by the republicans of West Virginia in their state convention makes a demand for a return to protection, denounces the issue of and that American labor be protected bonds by the government, demands sound money and that American labor be protected by the enforcement of the immigration laws.

The convention expressed its sympathy for the Cubans, and advised that they be recognized as belligerents.

J. E. Dana, of Charleston; A. B. White, of Tyler county; F. M. Reynolds, of Mineral county, and O. W. Hardman, of Tyler county, were elected delegates-at-large to St. Louis. The alternates elected are J. H. Duval, F. M. Thomas, John L. Hurst, and George Poffenbarger.

All are for McKinley and were instructed by resolution for him.

HOLDS COURT OUTDOORS.

Receives Visitors from Indiana, Colorado, and Washington.

Canton, Ohio, May 15.—Now that hot weather has come Gov. McKinley holds court on his front porch. Among the visitors Thursday were C. W. Fairbanks of Indiana, delegate-at-large, and State Senator Hartzell of Colorado, who dropped in and seemed to believe that when his state began to think about the matter it would drift to McKinley, and W. E. Curtis of Washington, who put in most of the day with the governor. Mr. Curtis says McKinley voted for reciprocity every time and in every form; that he was himself the go-between between Mr. Blaine and Mr. McKinley, and consequently there need be no doubt on that point, statements to the contrary notwithstanding. Most of the distinguished visitors were entertained at luncheon by Judge Day, who, by the way, may be expected to become a power in national affairs in the event of McKinley's election. Judge Day is the governor's warmest personal friend and adviser, whose relations have been peculiarly disinterested. He is the son of Judge Luther Day of the Ohio supreme court. He was appointed United States district judge, but resigned before qualifying.

Baton Rouge, La., May 15.—The legislature Thursday by a vote of almost two to one refused to go behind the returns and declared Governor Foster re-elected governor of Louisiana. DISASTER OF THE GALE.

Huge Derrick at the Drainage Canal
Crashes Upon Channel Workmen.

Chicago, May 15.—Wind in huge eddies assailed Chicago Thursday. Angry clouds—sullen, white-capped and black-edged clouds—swept over the city from early morning until late at night. In them a cyclone raged. Ahead a tornado worked injury to human life and damaged property. Some of the wrathful gusts traveled at the speed of almost sixty miles an hour, carrying a whirlwind which made travel on the city streets disagreeable and even dangerous.

The wind, tornado and cyclone combined, was the aftermath of the almost unbearable heat which has been upon Chicago for the last six days. Angry bursts of rain came with the gales; then the chill of a northwest wind. For a time it was colder than an April day, as raw as one of March.

Twelve men were injured on the drainage channel, twenty miles from the heart of the city. Of these two may die. The men injured at section 4, drainage channel, McArthur Brothers' contract, by the blowing over of a derrick, were: H. J. Knetech, chest crushed, internally injured; left at McArthur Brothers' camp; may die. E. M. Lantz, skull fractured, injured internally; taken to sanitary hospital at Willow Springs; may die. Patrick Roach, ribs broken and injured internally; left at McArthur Brothers' camp. Timothy Crowe, leg and arm broken; taken to Willow Springs. Edmund Fitzmaurice, arm broken and shoulder dislocated; taken to Willow Springs. Charles Jordan, hip dislocated; left at McArthur Brothers' camp. John Murphy, ribs broken and face cut; left at McArthur Brothers' camp. William Norton, face cut; left at McArthur Brothers' camp. Frank Rago, arm broken and leg cut; brought to Chicago. Frank Rzech, face cut; left at McArthur Brothers' camp.

Two, names unknown, buried under the wreckage of derrick, but not supposed to be seriously injured.

Imprisoned Girls in a Panic.

St. Louis, May 15.—For half an hour about noon Thursday thirteen frantic people, mostly girls, were imprisoned in two rooms on the fourth floor of a building at 622 Locust street. The two front rooms on this floor are occupied as tailor shops by M. N. Bannoff & Co. and Siegelbaum Brothers. A gasoline stove used for heating iron exploded, and as the smoke came pouring into the room the girls rushed for the stairs but were unable to descend them. Panic-stricken, they would have dashed themselves out of the windows ten feet above the ground had they not been restrained by the men present. Several girls swooned from fright, while others were nearly crazed by excitement. The fire department soon arrived and the flames were speedily subdued.

Cincinnati, May 15.—The package of securities lost Wednesday by Morris White, president of the Fourth National bank, was returned to him by the finder, H. A. BOLD BANK ROBBERS

RIDE ON BICYCLES

THE OUTLAWS ESCAPE ON THEIR WHEELS.

The Cashier of the Bank at Buffalo,
Fifteen Miles From Springfield,
Ill., Bound and Gagged—All the Money Taken From the Vault.

Springfield, Ill., May 15.—A bold bank robbery was perpetrated at noon Thursday at Buffalo, fifteen miles east of here. Two men rode into the town on bicycles and stopped at the bank. Entering, they drew their revolvers, and, seizing the cashier, Carl Kloppenburg, bound and gagged him and looted the bank, taking all the cash, amounting to about $11,000. The men mounted their wheels and made their escape from the village before the other employees of the bank, who were at dinner, returned.

The time chosen for the robbery was most opportune, as most of the people in the village were at dinner and Kloppenburg was entirely alone. Kloppenburg was at the safe and had his back turned toward the door when he was suddenly seized from behind and a revolver placed against his head. He could not turn his head to see the men and they first placed a blindfold over his eyes. While they were doing this he made a struggle and his hand came in contact with the face of one of the robbers, and he found that it was beardless.

It was half an hour before his companions found him helpless under a table. The only clue to the identity of the robbers is furnished by the fact that just after the time that Kloppenburg says the attack on him was made two men were seen riding away from the vicinity of the bank on bicycles, both being smooth-faced and one having red hair. A day or two ago a red-haired man answering the description of one of the wheelmen was seen loitering about the village in a suspicious manner.

A number of citizens headed by A. A. Pickrell, the president of the bank, immediately organized for the pursuit of the fleeing robbers, but no very definite clue as to their direction could be gained.

The police in this city are watching closely all new arrivals and arrested one man this afternoon on suspicion, but could not find evidence on which to hold him. During the last year five banks located in villages near Springfield have been robbed, and it is believed that it is the work of local crooks.

The men are believed to have gone into hiding in the Sangamon river bottoms, and it is expected that when the excitement dies out they will sneak back into this city, where their headquarters is located.

Johnson, Howard Payne and Emil E. Peterson, Company D, First infantry; Sergeant Stephen F. Ackerman and Privates Edward Burleson and John Piotrowski, Cavalry Troop A.

An Angel of Mercy.

Kansas City, Mo., May 15.—A 13-year-old girl petitioning Kansas City business men to sign a request to Gov. Stone to save the lives of two negro murderers was an unusual sight witnessed here Wednesday. Bessie Howe voluntarily started her endeavors in behalf of Pollard and Harris, who had murdered an Italian in a saloon row. The governor had refused to grant a further respite and their lawyers had apparently given up hope. Bessie Howe is of respectable parentage and was one of a number of visitors who saw the prisoners during the week.

May Be Butchered by the Savages.

Berlin, May 15.—The Colonial office expresses great anxiety for the fate of the German expedition against Hereres and Hottentot tribes in Southwest Africa, who revolted in the middle of last March. They are well equipped with British arms. There being no telegraphic communication with the coast Berlin authorities are doubtful whether the small reinforcements dispatched a month ago will suffice.

SPANISH MARINES FIRE ON OUR FLAG

GREIVIOUS INSULT TO THE UNITED STATES EMBLEM.

Shot After Shot Directed at the Stars and Stripes as They Floated
From the Masthead of the American Schooner Competitor in Cuban Waters.

New York, May 15.—James Creelman, Frederick W. Lawrence, and another correspondent for New York daily newspapers, whom Capt.-Gen. Weyler ordered out of Cuba, because they told too many truths about the manner in which the Spanish are conducting the Cuban war, reached New York Thursday, but were detained at Hoffman Island because of the defects in their naturalization papers.

The following was included in a cablegram by Creelman, which was interrupted by Gen. Weyler's order:

"It scarcely is possible to imagine a more deliberate defiance of the United States than that connected with incidents included in the capture of the filibuster Competitor. All the prisoners insisted that the American flag was held up by Laborde and afterwards carried up into the rigging by Gildea, the mate when the Spanish launch approached. The Spaniards fired again and again at the flag."

"Laborde said the Competitor had an American license and was regularly cleared at Key West, but that the ship's papers were seized by the naval officers, who rushed to produce them in order that the charge of piracy might not be upset."

"It seems to be certain almost that the men killed in the water were the ordinary crew of the schooner. They were shot while swimming. Two men were captured on shore. The conduct of the government in this case has been marked by extreme hatred toward the prisoners. Its attitude toward the United States is one of undisguised contempt and bitterness."

Rocheffort Defends Patriots.

Paris, May 15.—Henri Rocheffort, in the Intransigent alone, as always in the Paris press on this question, raises an eloquent voice in behalf of the Cubans, asserting that the men who embark to fight for the independence of Cuba are no more filibusters than were Garibaldi and the thousand when they started from Genoa on two steamers for the deliverance of Sicily and the Kingdom of Naples.

JANESVILLE always was a "horsey" town. Our whist "teams" are record breakers; our golf players are all skilled "drivers," nearly every one owns a "bike," the banks "check up" their books; many men wear "boots," the base ball clubs "score," the street sprinklers and watchmen "catch the quarters;" even the mill race is running; and trains refuse toe weight while "heats" are gotten off at the Machine company's foundry. It doesn't pay to buy advertising blindly, no matter how good it is. If you are selling $1,000 a week at a gross profit of 25 percent, and can increase the sales to $1,250 at a cost of $50 for advertising, you are a clear $1250 ahead. Rent and clerk hire, light and heat and interest all go on just the same, whether you sell $1,000 or $1,250.

PUT THE POLES ON LOT LINES
Street Car Company Plan to Remove Obstructions to Views.

Supt. Cummins of the street car company has his eye open for the public good. In the resetting of poles in the residence portion of the city he is not putting the new ones in the same location as the old ones, in many cases but is placing them on the lot lines so that they will not interfere with the view from any of the houses. This change has made much extra work necessary and Supt. Cummins is receiving the thanks of the people who are benefited.

Nervous

People often wonder why their nerves are so weak; why they get tired so easily; why they start at every slight but sudden sound; why they do not sleep naturally; why they have frequent headaches, indigestion and nervous

Dyspepsia

The explanation is simple. It is found in that impure blood which is continually feeding the nerves upon refuse instead of the elements of strength and vigor. In such condition opiate and nerve compounds simply deaden and do not cure. Hood's Sarsaparilla feeds the nerves pure, rich, red blood; gives natural sleep, perfect digestion, is the true remedy for all nervous troubles.

of the finest

Scotch Zephyr Ginghams....

These Ginghams have a world-wide reputation. They were made by John and James Anderson, and are commonly called "Anderson Zephyrs."

The assortment of styles that we show them in is something wonderful.

It is the largest shipment of fine Ginghams ever received in Janesville.

They are perfectly fast in color, even the most delicate shadings.

The prices at which they have been sold all the season was 25c.

We bought this immense lot so low that we can offer them at a heretofore unheard of figure for such styles and qualities.

Our price is 15 cents.

Although commonly called Ginghams, they are almost like silk, so fine and even are the threads.

Their extreme fineness gives them a smooth, lustrous, silky effect.

For wear there is nothing in cotton wash fabrics more satisfactory.

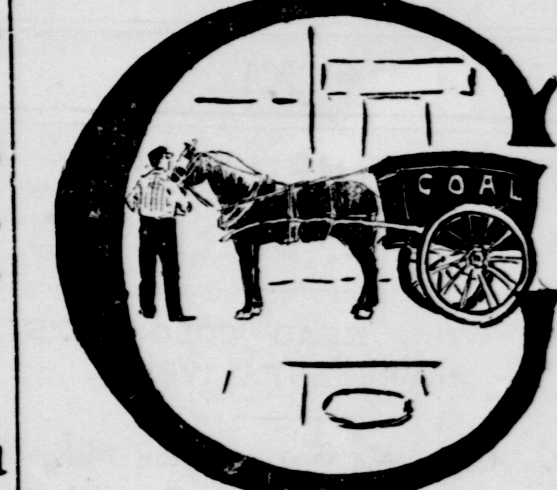

We wish to particularly impress the fact upon the minds of all who read this that there is not an old style pattern in the collection.

Our pencil can give no adequate description of the beauty of these Ginghams.

They must be seen.

THEY OPPOSE ALL SUNDAY LAWS

Personal Liberty League Send Circulars to Janesville.

A circular sent out by Edward Knott of Milwaukee, secretary of the League for the Protection of Personal Liberty, has been received by a number of Janesville people. It states that about fifty societies and lodges have declared their affiliation with the league. The circular urges the organization of "the liberal elements of our population" to take measures to unite in opposing "numerous organizations of a nativistic and puritanical character which have sprung up and displayed great activity in gaining the enforcement and revival of obsolete laws, which are an insult to the spirit of the times and the principles of true republicanism." The circular declares that the "Rev-erends" who control Civic federations and similar organizations would prohibit harmless pleasures on Sunday that the churches may reap a richer harvest.

Referring to existing Sunday laws the circular says: "Though in some degree milder and less comprehensive than the New England 'Blue laws' still they enable a fanatical executive to suppress all freedom of action on Sunday and force a gloomy Sabbath observation upon a great majority of the people in direct violation of the laws, which grant liberty of conscience. We need not be blessed with a man after the pattern of Mr. Roosevelt of New York, and the people of this state and even of this city of Milwaukee may be forced into Sunday observance very similar to that of New York. In our smaller towns, our capital, Madison, for instance, this condition already exists."

MISS ALCOTT'S PHILOSOPHY.

Author of "Little Women" Wrote that Women Need a Religion.

Letters written at intervals during the last few years of Louisa M. Alcott's life to five "little girl friends," edited by Edward W. Bok, are printed, for the first time, in Ladies' Home Journal. The author of "Little Women" in these letters chats with delightful freedom about her work, her cares, her early struggles and influences, and of her religious faith. In writing to one of her "little girls" who had just lost a sister—one of the five correspondents of earlier years—Miss Alcott says with characteristic charm and loving candor:

"* * * I think you need not worry about any name for your faith, but simply try to be and do good, to love virtue in others, and study the lives of those who are truly worthy of imitation. Women need a religion of their own, for they are called upon to lead a quiet, self-sacrificing life with peculiar trials, needs and joys, and it seems to me that a very simple one is fitted to us whose hearts are usually more alive than heads, and whose hands are tied in many ways. Health of body helps health of soul; cheerful views of all things keep up the courage and brace the nerves. Work for the mind must be had, or daily duty becomes drudgery, and the power to enjoy higher things is lost. Change of scene is sometimes salvation for girls or women, who outgrow the place they are born in, and it is their duty to go away, even if it is to harder work, for hungry minds prey on themselves, and bodies suffer for escape from a too pale or narrow life. I have felt this and often gone away from Concord to teach, which I never liked, because there was no food for my mind in that small conservative town, especially since Mr. Emerson died. Food, fire and shelter are not all that women need, and the noble discontent that asks for more should not be condemned, but helped if possible. At twenty-one I took my little earnings ($20) and a few clothes, and went to seek my fortune, though I might have sat still and been supported by rich friends. All those hard years were teaching me what I afterward put into the books, and so I made my fortune out of my seeming misfortune. I speak of myself because what one has lived one really knows and so can speak honestly."

IS YOUR DIGESTION POOR?

A Sample and Full Information Concerning the New Discovery for Dyspepsia Sent Free to Any Address.

A great deal of interest has been excited recently in the medical profession by the discovery of a new preparation, which has made many remarkable cures in cases of dyspepsia and indigestion.

This remedy is not a secret patent medicine, but is a scientific combination of pure pepsin and bismuth and fruit salts, pleasant to the taste, in tablet form, and sold by druggists under name of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets. Dr. Erskine who tested the tablets in many cases with marked success, states that they act entirely on the food taken into the stomach digesting it perfectly, no matter how weak the stomach may be; they have no action on the bowels and do not physic, being purely and simply a cure for dyspepsia and nothing else.

All physicians recommend them as being the safest, most sensible, most effective stomach remedy on the market.

No dieting or change of habits are required; eat all the wholesome food you care for and take a tablet at each meal, the food will be thoroughly digested, the body nourished, the stomach rested; that's the whole secret of curing indigestion and the whole secret of the success of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets; the reason why they have taken the place of after-dinner pills, "stomach bitters," "laxatives" and "tonics."

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are sold by druggists at 50 cts. per package, or he will order them for you if you ask him, as all druggists sell them.

A small sample package of the tablets will be sent free to any address if you will write to the Stuart Co., Marshall, Mich. Also circulars and testimonials.

The editors who are talking about an extra session of the Fifty-fifth congress being called to meet on the day the next president is inaugurated are exhibiting their ignorance. No proclamation can be issued calling congress together until after the next president has taken his seat, and it is customary, although not obligatory, to issue such proclamations at least thirty days in advance of the date named for congress to meet.

Mr. Cleveland can stand stand calling an extra session of congress, for financial legislation, the republicans certainly can. The position of the republicans has already been unflinchingly declared by the bills passed by the house, the only branch of congress controlled by republicans.

Now gentleman, nearly all of the delegates to the St. Louis convention have been selected, suppose we let them make the platform and name the candidates. They are representative republicans and can be trusted to do the right thing for the country, as well as for the party.

Well, well! Mr. Bookwalter, once a prominent Ohio democrat, pokes his head out of the valley of obscurity long enough to predict that the Chicago convention will adopt a free silver platform and nominate Cleveland. Truly, that would be a democratic combination, indeed.

It will be a comparatively easy matter to get the right witnesses before the senate committee which will investigate those bond issues, but making them tell all they know will be another thing entirely.

The bewhiskered joke about missionaries being eaten by cannibals was recently made a disagreeable fact on the Solomon and other small islands in the Pacific. The eaten were English.

Senator Brice has given indications of a desire to sacrifice ex-Governor Campbell once more, by giving him the presidential nomination. "Jimmy" ought to be used to the sacrifice act by this time.

There is always occupation for the professional liars. By the time the rainy season drives them out of Cuba the democratic editors of the United States will be bidding for their services.

The difference between Grover Cleveland and Chicago is as wide as their respective mottoes—"I will" and "I won't"—but Grover wants to boss that convention all the same.

Prince Blamarck would, if properly approached give General Weyler some pointers on what comes of threatening to resign every time the game doesn't go your way.

The bicycle craze is credited with having made the last season such a disastrous one to the show business. Let the summer resort proprietors beware.

Mr. Cleveland's dream of a perfect civil service means a smoothly working Cleveland machine, which can be controlled from Washington, in every state.

It is safe to say that neither Senators Tillman nor Vest are included in Mr. Cleveland's scheme of a harmonious democratic party.

The time will soon come when the wealthy man who dies and leaves only one widow, will be spoken of as having been eccentric.

It looks like it would be McKinleyism against Clevelandism, which will mean a walkover for the former.

Senators Gorman and Vest on the stump for Cleveland will be a sight worth going miles to see.

Joe Pulitzer has hoodooed the third-term movement by offering to support it, conditionally.

The carelessness of many wheel owners is causing tramps to take to the bicycle.

It would take more than a foreign war to elect Mr. Cleveland president again.

THE HANOVER FIRE WAS A BUG'S WORK

NO DOUBT BUT WHAT IT WAS INCENDIARY.

So Says E. A. Kemmerer, Son of the Proprietor of the General Store—Was No Lamp Or Stove in the Building From Which It Could Have Caught.

There is no doubt but that the Hanover fire was of incendiary origin, but the fire-bug did his work well.

So says E. A. Kemmerer, son of S. L. Kemmerer, the owner of the stock of goods that was burned.

Mr. Kemmerer came to Janesville this morning to notify the insurance men of the loss. The firm had $7,000 insurance, $2,500 of which was in Carter & Haselton's agency, and the balance written with Simon Strauss.

"Neither my father or myself were at home when the fire occurred," he said to a Gazette reporter, "so we do not know much about the actual destruction of the goods. Father is in Dakota, and I was here making arrangements to handle a line of bakery goods. The first I knew of the fire was when I got home at 6 o'clock in the morning. Nothing was saved to speak of. Our entire stock was totally destroyed with the exception of a small quantity of boys' clothing that bystanders saved before the fire got to burning so briskly that they could not enter the building.

No Doubt of the Origin

"There is no doubt but what the blaze was of incendiary origin. There were no lighted lamps in the store, and no fire in the store. In fact, there was no way in which the store could possibly catch fire. It must have been set by someone; I cannot conceive of any other way for it to have started. There is nothing to show how it was done. All that remains of the building is the metal roof. Both store and goods were totally destroyed. Footprints leading from the road to the store were plainly apparent yesterday, but that may or may not indicate anything. The insurance men will probably make an investigation before settling the policies. Our future plans are not formed as yet. I have wired my father of the fire, but have not heard from him. Whether or not we remain in Hanover remains to be seen. There is no vacant store in the town and we cannot build.

GAVE A GENUINE BARN DANCE."

Pleasant Event at the Home of Mr. and Mrs. F. Finch, Last Night.

It was a merry gathering that assembled last evening at the La Prairie home of Mr. and Mrs. F. Finch, the occasion being a genuine old time "barn dance," and a number from this city attended. The whole upper floor of the large barn was given over to the dancers, and Smith's orchestra furnished excellent music. Supper was served, and the occasion was an enjoyable one.

A High Grade Bicycle $33.50

The Lowell Hardware Company's large ad. of this evening speaks of bicycles at $33.50 cash. The wheel is one of the same makes they handled last season and a wheel that gave more general satisfaction than any they sold, not a complaint from it being received. It's the wheel for the working man and person who cannot afford to pay extremely high prices for a high grade machine. It's a 96 model in every particular and any finish desired can be obtained. Read the description in the large ad. and bring $33.50 for one of them at once.

Electricity and Pipe.

EDITOR GAZETTE:—If there is constant flow of water through iron water pipe, electricity cannot crystallize or corrode the pipe; but should the pipe alternate with use and disuse—being dry for a time, then wet for a time, electricity will corrode. In the case of the Janesville water mains, it must be a poor quality of iron rather than any effect of electricity.

THE C. & N.W. EXTENDS THE BLOCK SYSTEM

THE WORK WAS BEGUN THIS MORNING.

Line From This City to Chicago

Will Be Completed By the Time the Summer Rush Begins—New Rails Between Sharon and Clinton.

The "block system" will soon cover the Chicago & Northwestern's line from Janesville to Chicago. A crew of men began work today, closing up the gap between Barrington and Harvard, which will complete the span. When the line was started, it only covered the double track from Chicago to Barrington. Then business picked up and the line from Harvard to Janesville was built. For some time it was in use, then trade fell off, and the line was abandoned again. Now the shipments are beginning to increase again, and the company is preparing for the rush which is expected to set in soon. If these expectations are fulfilled the block system will be completed in time to handle all the trains. As soon as its completion as trade warrants, the system will be put in operation again.

The company is now at work replacing the old rails between Clinton and Sharon with heavier steel. The work is expensive, as a better grade of material than before used, is being put in. Much of the gravel taken from the Black Bridge pit, is being used in ballasting up this stretch of track as fast as the roads are laid.

A YELLOW WATER LILY.

THE sea gulls are not afraid of that girl, and when she dives they hover above the spot where she went down like a great gray cloud, and when she comes up they whirl about over her head—to me it is positively uncanny.”

Ethel Gray dug her little boot into the smooth sand and looked out thoughtfully with eyes blue and limpid as sunlit Monterey bay.

“But what is all this about,” asked a dark-eyed girl, who had been the beauty last season herself. Is it strange for a woman to be beautiful?”

“True; you have not heard,” cried Ethel, eagerly. “Well, you see, Alice, a few days ago this Miss Morse appeared at the Del Monte alone and unattended.”

“She is beautiful,” continued Ethel, “but the most peculiar looking person I have ever seen, tall, slender and fair, with a sort of transparent whiteness, a perfect wealth of yellow hair and—just fancy it—eyes exactly the same color. You should see them at night; they flash and gleam like topazes. She comes to the beach every day and she is a vision in the water; she always dresses in dark-green with queer little touches of light here and there, and of an evening when she appears it is in the palest of green with billowy white lace and gleams of yellow that give her that phosphorescent look the sea has at night. The men are all mad about her but she has very little to say to anyone. It is very noticeable, however, that she watches Mr. Harmon very closely.”

“Tell me about him.”

“I cannot. We are dying to know him, but he is so—reserved. I fancy he has a history.”

“He has a story,” the voice came from a sweet-faced woman near by; “a very sad one.” He was engaged to be married to a cousin of mine. Five years ago she was drowned while bathing. His whole life has been saddened by it. I wish he could get over it.”

Then they sat watching the bathers when suddenly Mrs. Carson spoke again.

“Why there is Albert Harmon in the surf,” she said. “He swam well years ago and he does now, but I have not known him to take an interest in it for years.”

Thinking of that time she again grew silent, looking with earnest eyes across the blue waters, listening to the soft beat of the waves on the shore. Presently some one sank down upon the sand beside her, and looking up she saw it was Miss Morse, her yellow eyes half closed, a strange look of intense watchfulness upon her face.

“You are going in the water to-day my dear. I see you have on your bathing suit?” Mrs. Carson asked kindly.

“I am going in,” she answered, and the same intensity was perceptible in her voice, “but not yet,” and then she turned her head slightly and looked straight into Mrs. Carson’s eyes. There was something so sinister,

LAY A YELLOW WATER LILY. ter, so strange in that look and withal so familiar that Mrs. Carson gazed repelled yet fascinated. “I am going in,” she repeated in a voice so low that it came to Mrs. Carson’s bewildered senses like the hiss of a serpent, “but not yet.”

How long a time passed before she could look away from those yellow lights Mrs. Carson never knew, but presently she was conscious of a great tumult and heard the cry.

“He has gone down. Harmon has gone down,” and then the eager watchers saw the flash of white arms and the gleam of a golden head going like a bird through the water; others were making their way to the place where he had been seen to sink, but Miss Morse was the first, and as Harmon, half dead, came again in view she stretched forth her hand and caught him, and a great cry went up and then they went down together.

A few minutes later another shout rang out.

“They have found him!” and strong arms brought him to the shore and laid him down tenderly in his manly strength and beauty, quite dead.

“They are searching for her,” Mrs. Carson heard them say, as she bent over him to place her hand upon his heart. She was kneeling beside him, and suddenly she lifted her face, white as the dead one lying there.

“Call the men in,” she said in a strange, awed voice; “they are both here.”

She drew aside the clinging folds on the man’s breast and there, perfect in its beauty, lay a yellow water lily.

A Reminder.

Down the post office steps Rev. Dr. Fyffthly carefully picked his way, and then his feet suddenly shot out, and he went down right in the midst of a group of stockbrokers.

“Ah, good morning, doctor,” laughed the stockbrokers, recognizing the minister, “you remind us of the wicked man, whose foot slipped.”

“Nay,” retorted the good minister, “but rather do I seem like the man who went down to Jericho.”

“How is that?” chorused the brokers. “Because he fell among thieves,” murmured the doctor as he got up and moved decorously away.—N. Y. Recorder.

Unhandsome Trick.

In the dead of night Mr. Billus heard a faint scream.

“Maria,” he said, rousing himself, “I forgot to tell you I was carrying my money in one of those trick pocket-books that run a pin in your thumb when you try to open them. Press it on the left side, just below the clasp.”—Chicago Tribune.

Hans Was Satisfied.

Hans had climbed up into the cherry tree to gather cherries. Meantime a storm came on, and the father called out to the lad:

Called Down.

“Do you know, Mrs. Boardman,” said the young man who was two months behind in his board, “by means of the cathode rays I could tell everything that is in that plate of hash?”

Legal Oratory.

To some pungent remarks of a professional brother, an American barister commenced his reply as follows: "May it please the court, resting on the couch of republican equality as I do, covered with the blanket of constitutional panolpy as I am, and protected by the aegis of American liberty as I feel myself to be, I despise the buzzing of the professional insect who has just sat down, and defy his futile attempts to penetrate, with his puny sting, the interstices of my impervious covering."—Tit-Bits.

"Yes," boasted an Englishman in the west, "I have Tudor blood in my veins from my mother's side of the family and Plantagenet blood from my father's."

What He Would Say.

"I should say," replied the husband, "that the brigands were new at the business. That's all."—Texas Sifter.

When they put a man in jail, he cannot follow his natural inclinations. He cannot eat what he wants to—he is limited to a very frugal diet. Is it not equally true of a dyspeptic? For all of the real enjoyment he gets out of life, he might as well be in jail. He cannot eat what he likes, nor enough. He suffers much, gets little sympathy. At first, perhaps a little heaviness in the stomach, a little sourness, windy belchings and heartburn. Headaches and biliousness and a foul taste in the mouth in the morning. Chronic constipation is almost inevitable, and means that the body is holding poisons, impure matter that should be gotten rid of. The poison is being reabsorbed into the blood and the whole body. Impurity in the blood may lead to almost any disease. Constipation is the start of it all. Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets cure constipation, cure it so it stays cured. No other remedy in the world will do that. Of druggists.

What Is Bicycling

Without the Proper Clothing?

The person who rides a "bike" cannot thoroughly enjoy the exercise without they are dressed comfortably for it. One wishes to feel free in the limbs as well as the rest of the body so that the motion is not tiresome more than is necessary. We have sold and are selling more Bicycle Suits than any concern in the city. That must signify something. It must mean that we have the assortment, make prices that are not too high and otherwise satisfy purchasers. We have hundreds of pretty pattern cloths to select from. If you don't find in stock what exactly pleases you we can send away for any style you want.

We have a wonderfully nice assortment of CAPS, the kind that are cool and are nice to wear for every day.

SWEATERS in many styles and prices.
